2) Minutes Approved. First by Amy, second by Christel.

3) Treasure Report: Approved. First by Bob, second by Christel.

4) Request for public input: No public input.

5) Membership Matters: Joan Verhelst resigned and Ted Hacker is interested in joining. Sgt Jacobs is still attempting to get a representative from Lutheran High School and Judge Dewane volunteered one of his daughters as the Roncalli High School representative. As a group, we voted for the badge to be on our crime prevention shirts. Nancy researched the cost and passed around sheets for any members who want to order shirts.

6) TRIAD Update: Triad met today and they are trying to agree on a new project. One of the successful projects in the past was the handicapped parking project.

7) High School Members Update: Christel reports nothing new at Lincoln High School. Payton reports Valders High School is having problems with kids speeding in the parking lot where there are no cameras.

8) SRO Update: Officer Paul Kroch from Wilson Junior High reported that they are planning the DARE graduations at the junior high schools. Washington Junior High's DARE graduation is on November 21 and Wilson Junior High's graduation will be on November 28. Kroch reports the school year is going well with the teamwork of the new associated principal Courtney DiArmond. Officer Laabs and Detective Lecher gave a presentation on Cyber Bullying at Washington Junior High.

9) Citizens Academy Alumni Update: They are planning on marching in the holiday parade. Multiple members worked the concession stand at Crime Prevention Days as a fundraiser. They have started planning next year's Citizens's Academy and have are adding riot and crowd control to the lesson plans.

10) Healthiest Manitowoc County Substance Abuse Prevention: Christma reported that they are looking into federal funding to work with Susan Beattie at Pathways. They are looking for partnership funding on Opiate crisis. They are also looking into a recovery high school which is part time school and part time recovery work.

11) City Council Update: No update

12) CPC Activities/Project/Scams: The latest is scam is Spoofing, which is random calling on cell phone numbers attempting to get people's personal information, account information and social security numbers. Sgt Jacobs is also has reports of false checks being sent to people. When people cash the checks, the accounts are closed.

Old Business: Crime Prevention Day had its lowest turnout with less than 900 people attending. This is the 3rd year we have not had students come from local schools to sing. Only 194 fingerprint kits were completed, 280 bike helmets were given out and 123 mystery meals.

New Business: Nancy was nominated for Chair, Bob was nominated for Vice Chair, Melia for Secretary and Vicki for Treasurer

13) Dates to remember: Our next meeting will be December 7th, 2017

Meeting adjourned. First by Amy and second by Charles

Minutes submitted by Lee & Melia Prange.
