Jackson Elementary Summer School Crossing Guard

Principal of Jackson Elementary School, Duane Simmons along with Parents, Ashley Eick and Kristine Jacobson reported their safety concern for the children attending Jackson Elementary School during the summer. Due to the increase in the number of students attending summer school at Jackson Elementary School, they feel it is necessary to have crossing guards present before and after school hours. Deputy Chief Rob Barbier stated due to this request not being budgeted for, the cost to supply the crossing guards is the main concern. At this time more information has been requested and this item will remain on the agenda.
