

Rahr-West Art Museum

2023 Open Juried Exhibition Prospectus

Being: A Recognition of Self and Other

Being: a Recognition of Self and Other will be a juried exhibition of works held in the John West Gallery of the Rahr-West Art Museum. The theme of the exhibition, Being: A Recognition of Self and Other, offers a wide scope for artistic interpretation around issues of personal and social identity. We expect 35-50 works to be chosen from among the entries.

Exhibit Dates: Sunday, August 20 – Sunday, September 17, 2023

Reception: Sunday, August 20, 2023 1:00 – 3:00 pm, Awards Presentation at 2:00pm

Commitment

Entry to this exhibit establishes an agreement on the part of the artist to exhibit selected works under all conditions in this prospectus. Substitutions for accepted works are not allowed.

Presentation

- All 2D works must be ready to hand and securely wired. Clip frames and saw tooth hangers are not acceptable. For your art work's preservation, all works on paper, matted or not, on in shadow boxes, should be glazed.
- Maximum size for hanging work is 48" in any direction, including frame. All multi-part 2D works must be within one frame or with part securely attached to each other.
- Sculpture must not exceed 100 pounds, and must safely fit on a 24" square pedestal or on the floor. Inquire in writing before submitting work requiring unusual floor space.
- Intake committee reserves the right to exclude any piece they deem not suitably framed and wired for hanging, considered hazardous in a public place, or that differs significantly from the digital image submitted.
- No food or live or dried plants, leaves, branches or logs are permitted in the Exhibition. The Rahr-West Art Museum has a strict policy regarding anything that might attract pests into the building and harm the artwork.

Insurance

Unless the exhibitor expressly elects to maintain his/her own insurance, the Rahr-West Art Museum will insure this loan under the terms of its fine arts policy. The loan will be insured for the amount given on the face of their loan agreement, to be signed by exhibitor at submission, against all risks of physical loss or damage from any external cause while on location during the period of the exhibition. The policy contains the usual exclusions of “all risk” policies. If the exhibitor chooses to maintain their own insurance, this shall constitute a release of Rahr-West Art Museum from any liability in connection with the property on loan. The Rahr-West Art Museum will give to all works of art loaned to it the same care as they would receive if they were the Museum’s own property.

Sales

- The purchase price for works sold, less a 20% commission, will be forwarded to the artist at the first billing period after the close of the exhibition.
- All works submitted as “Not for Sale” (NFS) must have a value attached for insurance purposes.
- All works must stay at the museum for the duration of the exhibit. If necessary, arrangements for shipping artwork must be made between the artist and the purchaser.
- City Policy states a completed W-9 form must be on file before a check can be issued. If necessary, artists will be contacted to complete a W-9, should their piece(s) sell.

Delivery of Accepted Art

- Thursday August 10 – Sunday, August 13, 2023 during Museum operating hours.
- Hand-deliver to the Rahr-West Art Museum at 610 N. 8th Street, Manitowoc, Wisconsin.
